In two weeks has a cheer competition. This not just any competition; this u.S finials. Her team has been practicing for this competition their whole season. Megan can't wait for the competition her goal is to win first place second place. One week of hard core practice has gone by and Megan is getting really excited. Her team has put in harder stunts and Today is the competition and Megan's team is really excited. They just finished their routine and are about to go on the floor. When they stepped on the floor the crowd went thought to herself and said " got this we have done this routine a million times we are capable of winning first place"! they were done performing the crowd went wild again the team did amazing. awards the team had to wait. All the cheer teams at the competition were called to the competition mat for awards. The crowd was so loud that the announcer had to say When Megan's team's division got to third place and that they weren't called yet they knew that they won first or second place. Then they announced first place and they won. Everyone on Megan's was so excited that they screamed The crowd went even than they did before. Megan went get the get the At that moment Megan knew that all that practicing paid off!
