Pudding Bears, and Chicken Pandas on Stilts

What a Adjective day. It's almost as if there's every Noun today. One Type of time eg second hour etc it's Adjective, the next Same type of time it's Adjective. It's such a Adjective day today.

I walk into the Room in house and pull open the Noun. A Food is Verb - Present ends in ING right in the Noun of the Adjective Noun. It's too Adjective.

Maybe if I Verb - Base Form on my Adjective Part of body plural I might reach it? I reach as far as I can when I Verb - Base Form into the Noun.

I rub my Part of body and Verb - Base Form around. It's not the Noun I'm in. It's a candyland! Type of candy plural for Something natural plural, Type of candy plural for Something natural plural, Type of candy plural for Something natural plural, everything you could Verb - Base Form Adjective is Noun! It's amazing. I go to sink my Part of body plural into a Adjective Type of candy Something natural when I am Verb - Past Tense back by something. I sit up and Verb - Base Form around. What could have possibly Same verb past tense me back like that? As I go to Verb - Base Form up, I'm Same verb past tense down again. I decide to stay down and Verb - Base Form there, looking at the Adjective Same type of candy plural

Something natural plural. I start to Verb - Base Form when something blocks my Noun. It's a Noun, wait - it's a panda? Hang on, it's a chicken. Or is it a Noun? I don't know. But whatever the Noun it is, it's on stilts! I Verb - Base Form in shock, Verb - Present ends in ING my

Noun

in the process. I sound weird. The chicken-panda _____ Verb - Present ends in S away, and comes back _____ Number _____ Type of time plural later with a pudding bear. I guess the chicken-panda must be the _____ Noun of the _____ Noun, since it's the only _____ Noun that isn't candy. So it must have _____ Verb - Past Tense I have _____ Verb - Past Tense, and been _____ Feeling past tense. Anyway, the pudding bear looks at me and _____ Verb - Present ends in S, with little pieces of _____ Food _____ Verb - Present ends in ING down its _____ Part of body. Suddenly everything turns _____ Colour, and all the candies turn _____ Adjective. The chicken-panda's _____ Part of body plural turn _____ Colour. I don't think that's a _____ Adjective sign. I try to _____ Verb - Base Form back, but something hits me on the _____ Part of body. I turn around. My fridge door!

I jump out of the fridge, grab my _____ Food from beginning of story, and _____ Verb - Base Form.
