Into the Ceiling

Dear Ms. Proper Noun,

Today in library, the gravity went Adjective. A lot of money came out of the Noun, after it floated to the ceiling and shattered into pieces. It made me rich, so I am not Adjective, but I wanted to let you know because a piece of the shelf hit me in the head. I plan to leave school and never Verb Base Form back because I am so rich. Please tell my Proper Noun and Proper Noun that I miss them already and I am sorry that I will not be going to college. I left a pile of cash in the bottom drawer to help the school fix the broken Repeat Last Noun.
